

The Gann Parent Association Invites Parents of Gann Academy Juniors!! Tuesday, January 18, 2011

Junior College night is Tuesday, January 18th!! You definitely want to attend this informative evening, as our kids embark on the college application journey.

**Schedule of Events****

5:30-7:30 (Students) Pizza and Salad available. Students are encouraged to stay at school, Students can then use the library, computer room or select classrooms to do homework or hang with friends.

6:45-7:30 (Parents) Light supper and information sharing in the dining hall. While eating parents will have the opportunity to ask questions and hear suggestions from “veterans” seated at their tables, about navigating the college application process. You’ll get top tips about easing up the process, staying sane and civil, and even how to make it fun!

7:30- 9:00 Parents and students convene in the Beit Midrash for presentation and meeting by Gann’s college counseling staff.

Student and Parent participation is strongly recommended!!

Cost for parent supper: $8/pp (supplemented by the Gann Parent Association)

Cost for student supper: ZIP!! (sponsored by the college counseling department)

RSVP for parent supper is encouraged to Carol Wasserman
