

Chicago Manual of Style Format

- For bibliographies, author's first and last names are inverted (for the first author); in footnotes, they are in normal order (Smith, John vs. John Smith)
 - For publications with more than one author, only the first author's name is inverted (for example, Doe, John and Sally Johnson)
- For footnotes, the publication information is enclosed in parenthesis
- For in-text citations, there is no comma in between the last name and the year, but there is a comma in between the year and the page number(s)
- For bibliographies, the second line and any subsequent lines are indented.
- For footnotes, only the first line is indented.
